

CITY OF VANCOUVER
SPECIAL COUNCIL MEETING

A Special Meeting of the Council of the City of Vancouver was held on Wednesday, March 22, 1978, in the Council Chamber, commencing at 3:10 p.m.

PRESENT: Mayor Volrich
Aldermen Bellamy, Brown, Ford,
Gibson, Kennedy, Marzari,
Puil and Rankin

ABSENT: Aldermen Gerard and Harcourt.

CLERK TO THE COUNCIL: D.H. Little.

The Special Meeting was convened for the purpose of formalizing the 'Twinning' relationship with the City of Edinburgh, in accordance with the Council resolution (In Camera) of October 4, 1977.

Mayor Volrich, on behalf of Council welcomed the Lord Provost of Edinburgh, The Right Honourable Kenneth Borthwick and the Lady Provost, Mrs. Borthwick. Accompanying the honoured guests was Mr. Andrew A. Fyall, Public Relations Officer for the City of Edinburgh.

The Mayor presented the Lord Provost with an illuminated scroll from the City of Vancouver to recognize the bond between the two cities.

The Lord Provost responded and presented the City with the official flag of the City of Edinburgh and a scroll to commemorate the 'Twinning'.

The Mayor then referred to the visit by the Lord Provost to a hockey game on Monday last and, to mark that occasion, and knowing the Lord Provost's interest in sport, presented him with a Vancouver Canucks hockey sweater.

Alderman Kennedy concluded the meeting by expressing his pleasure at the Lord Provost's visit.

The Council adjourned at approximately 3:35 p.m.

The foregoing are Minutes of the Special Council Meeting of March 22, 1978, adopted on April 4, 1978.
